Hugh Scher is the founder of Scher Law Professional Corporation, a specialty law firm with a focus on employment, human rights and disability insurance litigation and CPP disability claims, particularly on behalf of people with Myalgic Encephalomyelitis / Chronic Fatigue Syndrome and Fibromyalgia. Mr. Scher has worked for the past 15 years on leading cases before the Supreme Court of Canada, the Ontario Court of Appeal and other courts and tribunals to create precedents that advance the individual and systemic human rights of people with disabilities across Canada and particularly those experiencing ME/FM. His specialty in employment and disability insurance law has benefited dozens of individuals with ME and FM across the country.

Funding for our Seminars and other Community Events in Toronto is provided by the City of Toronto Community Services Partnerships Program
